

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

MARCH 1, 1845.

Submitted, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. DIX made the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Pensions, to which was referred the petition of Smith Cram, praying for a pension, report :

The petitioner states that he was enlisted during the revolutionary war for six months ; that he served that period, with the exception of about nine days, when he was discharged ; and that he did not arrive at home until after the six months, the term of his enlistment, had expired. The pay roll shows that he served five months and eleven days. This case does not come within the provisions of existing laws, which require a term of service "not less than six months."

The committee are of opinion that a special law should not be passed to meet this case. More than one of a similar character has fallen under the observation of the committee, and they should be provided for, if at all, by general legislation. They therefore recommend that the prayer of the petitioner be denied.

Mr. Dix made the following

REPORT

The Committee on Pensions, to which was referred the petition of Smith
Crown, praying for a pension, report:

The petitioner states that he was enlisted during the revolutionary war for six months; that he served that period, with the exception of about nine days, when he was discharged; and that he did not arrive at home until after the six months term of his enlistment had expired. The pay roll shows that he served five months and eleven days. This case does not come within the provisions of existing laws, which require a term of service "not less than six months."
The committee are of opinion that a special law should not be passed to meet this case. More than one of a similar character has fallen under the operation of the committee, and they should be provided for, if at all, by general legislation. They therefore recommend that the prayer of the petitioner be denied.
